Our Award Winning Executive Chef has been leading the Prince George Civic Centre's culinary team for the past 16 years. Having the opportunity to utilize his creativity and going above and beyond and exceeding the client's expectations are what motivates and inspires this culinary wizard. Creative ice carvings and specialty menus are just some of the things that motivate Jorge to make the Prince George Civic Centre "the place to host events in Northern British Columbia". When Jorge isn't creating masterpieces in the kitchen he is putting his craftsmanship to work in his woodworking shed or enjoying the outdoors with some of his favorite past time activities such as fishing and camping.
